

2010 Junior League Information & Registration Ages 9-16

This supervised golf league is available to youth that have taken golf lessons and have knowledge of golf rules and etiquette. This league provides an environment that helps youth improve their game and participate in weekly competitions. Choose Tuesday's from 6/15 to 8/17 or Thursday's from 6/17 to 8/19. Tee times are preassigned per foursome for the full season ranging from 7:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Registration will be accepted at KateHaven on Saturday, March 6th from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Tee times will be issued on a first come basis. Registrations after March 6th will be accepted by phone using Visa or Mastercard. Prepayment for the league is required upon registration. The rate is $145.00 which includes 10 weeks of golf, one rainout allowance, weekly competitions, prizes, supervision and year-end BBQ.

Rainouts will be considered for league play and lessons only if there is lightning and/or high winds with rain down pours. KateHaven staff will determine if any of these conditions exist and will either cancel or delay play. You or your foursome may choose not to play under other weather conditions however, if KateHaven remains open for play and has not cancelled the league, it will not be considered a rainout. If authorized league rainouts exceed more than one week, rain checks will be issued to those who qualify. Additional refunds, rain checks and makeup games will not be issued during the season.

Group lessons are provided at Shadow Ridge Driving Range. Sign up now for four one-hour lessons on Saturday, May 8th, 15th, 22nd, & June 5th. Each class is limited to 8 people with the first class starting at 8:00 a.m.

The rate is $45.00 per person and is payable to Phil Biesanz. Registration for lessons accepted through KateHaven. There will be no make-up times for individuals that miss any of the lessons. If necessary, a make-up lesson for a rainout will be on June 12th at your same time slot.

KateHaven Youth League Contract

The purpose of this contract is to provide a safe and fun environment for you as well as other golfers. It is also necessary in preventing damage to the golf course so it can continue to be enjoyed by you as well as others.

It is important for you to follow the rules of golf etiquette.

If you observe another golfer damaging the course or endangering the well being of you or others, it is your responsibility to report their act to a supervisor on duty.

Examples of damaging the course include:

- ** Unrepaired Divots or Ball Marks.
- ** Unnecessary divots to Tee Boxes due to consistent practice swings.
- ** Divots or holes made on a green by misuse of your club.
- ** Pounding your club or putter into the ground.

Examples of endangering the well being of you or others include:

- ** Walking or standing to close or in front of a person who has yet to hit their ball.
- ** Hitting your ball while others are standing or walking in front of you.
- ** Throwing your club or golf ball.
- ** Swinging your club when you are not practicing or hitting a ball.

If you are observed damaging the course in any way or endangering the well being of yourself or others, your parent will be notified, you will immediately be expelled from league play and no refund will be issued for any weeks remaining.

In signing this contract, I fully understand what is expected of me as well as others. I understand that if I am observed endangering others or myself or damaging the course in any way, my parents will be notified and I will be immediately expelled from league play and no refund will be issued for the weeks remaining.
